

Problem: Your teen is not communicating with you and constantly goes to his room and closes the door.

- ✓ Communicate a lot in non-obtrusive ways
- ✓ Understanding opens doors
- ✓ Give acceptance, gain a great relationship

Testimonials

Gail from St. Louis – I am always looking for suggestions on raising teens.
Thank you for your book.

Tammy from North County – Tell the truth! Depending on the maturity of the child, give it to them straight. The world is moving too fast to raise our kids the way we were raised.
